PART TWO - SUMMARY OF UNITS

This summary includes brigades and higher-level units. "Groups" that were equivalent in size to these formations are included in the appropriate category.

Supreme command

This was the Armee-Oberkommando or AOK

Mobilized in 1914, and served through end of the war in 1918

The HQ moved from Vienna to Przemysl in mid-Aug 1914; to Teschen in Sept 1914; finally moved to Baden (a Vienna suburb) in 1917

. Commanders-in-Chief - Aug 1914 to Nov 1916, GdI (FM) Archduke Frederick; Nov 1916 to 2 Nov 1918, Emperor Charles; 2 to 4 Nov 1918, FM Hermann Freih. Kövess von Kövesshaza

. (Deputy Commander-in-Chief for Nov 1916 to Feb 1917 was FM Archduke Frederick)

. Chiefs of the General Staff - Aug 1914 to March 1917, GdI (GO, FM) Franz Conrad von Hötzendorf; March 1917 to Nov 1918, GdI (GO) Artur Arz von Straussenberg

. Head of the Operational Office - Aug 1914 to April 1917, Col. (GM, FML) Joseph Metzger; Col. (GM) Alfred Reih. von Waldstätten, April 1917 to Nov 1918

Army Group HQ (arranged chronologically)Balkanstreitkräfte

Mobilized in 1914 as HQ in charge of the Balkan front; HQ identical to that of 6th Army until the end of Dec 1914, then identical to that of 5th Army; HQ left Balkans in May 1915 and on 27 May became HQ of the new Southwest Front versus Italy

. Commanders - Aug to 27 Dec 1914, FZM Oskar Potiorek; end of Dec 1914 to May 1915, GdK (GO) Archduke Eugene

. Chiefs of Staff - Aug to end of Dec 1914, GM Eduard Edler von Böltz; from end of Dec 1914 to May 1915, FML Alfred Krauss

Southwest Front (also known for a while as Heeresgruppe Erzherzog Eugen)

HQ created in 27 May 1915 from the former Balkanstreitkräfte HQ to command the units on the Italian front; in March 1916 re-designated as Heeresgruppe Archduke Eugene (when its command was restricted to Tyrol for the spring offensive); in March 1917 again became Southwest Front, over all the Italian theater; in 1917 also called "Heeresfront Archduke Eugene"; dissolved on 11 Jan 1918

. Commander - Always GO (FM) Archduke Eugene

. Chiefs of Staff - 27 May 1915 to March 1917, FML Alfred Krauss; March 1917 to Jan 1918, GM (FML) Theodor Konopicky

Heeresgruppe Böhm-Ermolli

Formed in Sept 1915; although somewhat provisional in nature (it used the commander and HQ of 2nd Army, and never was a distinct command), this HG proved lasting; dissolved on 25 July 1916, when more direct German control of the front was necessary in the wake of Brussilov's offensive, but re-created in 4 Oct 1916.

Dissolved permanently on 24 Jan 1918, since fighting was winding down on the Eastern front.

- . Commander - GdK (GO, finally FM) Eduard von Böhm-Ermolli
- . Chief of Staff - Col. (GM) Karl Freih. Bardolff (Dr. jur.)
- . Theater - Eastern front (eastern Galicia sector)

Heeresfront Erzherzog Karl Franz Joseph, later H.F. Erzherzog Joseph and finally became the H.F. Kövess

Formed at the end of July 1916 as Heeresgruppe Erzherzog Karl Franz Josef, using the HQ of the incomplete 12th Army; in Oct nominally updated as a Heeresfront, without any change in use; was responsible for the southern part of the front opposite Russia (armies actually under its command changed over time, as did the length of its sector); dissolved in April 1918 after termination of actions in the East

. Commanders - Late July 1916 to Dec 1916, GdK Archduke Karl (when he became Emperor in Nov, the acting commander was FM Kövess); Dec 1916 to Jan 1918, GO Archduke Joseph; Jan to April 1918, FM Hermann Freih. Kövess von Kövesshaza

. Chiefs of Staff - July 1916 to Dec 1917, Prussian GM Hans von Seeckt; Dec 1917 to Jan 1918, FML Rudolf von Willerding; Jan to April 1918, GM Eduard Ritter von Steinitz

. (There was a k.u.k. officer as Deputy Chief of Staff for July-Dec 1916 - Col. Alfred Freih. von Waldstätten)

Heeresgruppe Conrad (later HG Archduke Joseph and finally HG Krobotin)

Formed on 1 March 1917 to oversee the front in Tyrol (and so unofficially was the Tyrol HG); led by Conrad until July 1918, then by Archduke Joseph; in late Oct 1918 the Archduke left for the Balkans, where he was supposed to swap commands with FM Kövess; however, the change was never effectuated due to the chaos of the last days of the war; the commander of 10th Army, Krobotin, was therefore temporarily in charge as the HG collapsed

. Commanders - FM Franz Conrad von Hötzendorf; GO (FM) Archduke Joseph; FM Alexander Freih. von Krobotin

. Chiefs of Staff - March 1917 to July 1918, GM Richard Müller; July 1918 to war's end, FML Rudolf von Willerding

. Theater - Italian front (Tyrol)

Heeresgruppe Boroevic

Formed on 23 Aug 1917 to oversee the front on the Isonzo (created by dividing Boroevic's overly-large 5th or Isonzo Army in half)

- . Commander - GO (FM) Svetozar Boroevic von Bojna
- . Chiefs of Staff - Aug 1917 to Jan 1918, FML Aurel von Le Beau; Jan to Nov 1918, Col. (GM) Anton Ritter von Pitreich
- . Theater - Italian front (on the Isonzo, then the Piave)

Heeresgruppe Kövess

Formed at the start of Oct 1918 to oversee the newly-enlarged front in the Balkans; at the end of the month Kövess was supposed to switch posts with Archduke Joseph (hitherto in command of the Tyrol) but this didn't happen due to the chaos of the last days of the war

- . Commander - FM Hermann Freih. Kövess von Kövesshaza
- . Chief of Staff - FML Theodor Konopicky
- . Theater - Balkans (troops in Serbia, Bosnia-Herzegovina, Montenegro and Albania)

- . Commander - GM Rafael Vukadinovic
- . Assigned - An independent brigade in the Balkans, Oct to Dec 1915; in 62nd Infantry Division, Dec 1915 to Jan 1916

13 There is some obscurity about the use of Groups Vuchetich and Vukadinovic in 1916; they had parallel careers and both entered 62nd Infantry Division during Dec 1915. However, in Jan 1916 Vuchetich appears in the narrative text (Volume IV) but not in the order of battle; Vukadinovic is in the order of battle but not the text for Volume IV. Perhaps they were combined into one group under 62nd Division by 1 January, but the problem is unresolved.

. Operations - Guarded the Drina, Nov¹⁴ to Dec 1915; advanced toward Cajnice, 25-27 Nov; advance to the Tara, 13-16 Dec; then joined 62nd Infantry Division for Montenegro campaign.

TRADITIONS MAINTAINED IN THE INTER-WAR AUSTRIAN ARMY

The following is a list of the Austrian units as of the Anschluss in 1938, showing their traditional links with the units of the 1914-1918 Army. Many of them observed memorial days that commemorated actions of the World War. (In the original this information is scattered through the seven volumes as footnotes; in this translation it is assembled at this one point.)

a. Infantry Regiments

- . IR "Kaiser Franz Joseph" # 1 - At Wiener Neustadt (Lower Austria); inherited traditions of Schützen Regt "St Pölten" # 21; memorial day was 22 Nov 1914 (for the action at Pillica); in 1938 was in 1st Div; in April 1938 became HQ and II Bn of German Schützen Regt # 12 (at Meiningen)
- . IR "Alt-Starhemberg" # 2 - At Vienna (Viennese); inherited traditions of Schützen Regt "Wien" # 1; memorial day was 12 Sept 1683 (for the relief of Vienna from the Turks); in 1938 was in 1st Div; in April 1938 became II Bn of German Cav Rife Regt # 10

. IR "Erzherzog Karl" # 3 - At Vienna (Viennese); inherited traditions of Schützen Regt "Wien" # 24; memorial day was 12 March 1915 (for the storm of Manilowa); in 1938 was in 2nd Div; in April 1938 became German IR # 131 (at Nikolsburg)

. IR "Hoch und Deutschmeister" # 4 - At Vienna (Viennese); identical to IR "Deutschmeister" # 4, first raised in 1696; memorial day was 18 June 1757 (for the Battle of Kolin); in 1938 was in 2nd Div; in April 1938 became German IR # 134 (still at Vienna)

. IR "General Carl Vauguin" # 5 - At Vienna (recruited throughout Lower Austria); was a re-incarnation of IR # 84 (raised 1883); memorial day was 4 June 1916 (for action at Sapanow); in 1938 was in 3rd Div; dissolved in April 1938

. IR # 6 - At Vienna (Lower Austrian); was a reincarnation of IR # 49 (raised 1715); memorial day was 13 May 1809 (for the action at Schwarzer Lacken-Au); in 1938 was in 3rd Div; in April 1938 became German IR # 132 (and by 1939 transferred its HQ to Znaim in Moravia)
